Terms of Membership

ILDA is nonprofit trade association dedicated to advancing the art and technology of laser displays. By joining ILDA, you will benefit from access to technical and creative assistance, a listing in our Web directory, the ability to compete for ILDA Awards, financial discounts, and more. You will also discover valuable networking opportunities with professionals from around the world.

ILDA's membership year starts and ends with our annual fall conference. Dues are prorated for members who join at various times during the year (see next page for dues schedule).

By submitting this form, you agree to abide by the terms of ILDA's By-Laws, including the Code of Ethics (see next page), and you agree to comply with all applicable governmental laws and safety regulations where you conduct business (including, in the United States, the U.S. FDA/CDRH).

ILDA Code of Ethics

Members desire to promote cooperative, responsible and ethical applications of laser display.

Members agree to conduct their business in a professional, ethical, safe and courteous manner, and to make a good faith effort to resolve any and all complaints made against them.

Members agree to respect the goals, desires and objectives of their clients.

Members agree to observe and obey any and all regulations governing the use of lasers in any country or area in which the Member operates.

No Member will knowingly take or receive credit for work done by another Member or, through inaction, knowingly allow an incorrect credit to persist.

Members agree not to make inaccurate or misleading claims in advertising and/or promotions.

No Member will knowingly make inaccurate or slanderous statements about any competitor or through silence lend credibility to statements made by others.

Members will not misrepresent their capabilities or the capabilities of the medium in general.

All occurrences involving member violations or alleged violations of Section 3, Article VI of the Code of Ethics, shall be investigated by the Ethics Committee.
